Processing Capabilities

Roasting We slow roast and evenly coat each batch to perfection, adding a desired toasted flavor and texture to any nut.

Dicing Any of our nuts or dried fruits can be custom cut to your specific size requirements.

Panning Envelop your ingredients with premium dark, milk or white chocolate, yogurt, compounds, unique flavors and even colors.

Coatings Boost your flavor profile with any variety of seasonings from sweet to savory or heat. Add delicious flavor and texture with our praline or honey roasting.

Mixing We hand mix most of our mix blends to ensure blend accuracy and minimize the number of broken ingredients.

Extrusion Our proprietary process enables us to make the best tasting sesame, corn and specialty mix components.

Baking/Popping Our proprietary Japanese process for baking and popping allows us to create thin, light and crispy crackers with a satisfying crunch in every bite. TH Foods is the only “Usuyaki” style rice cracker manufacturer in North America.

The Difference is in the Details.

Raw Material Sourcing

Only the best products will do for our customers. It starts with our critical selection of strategic partners to source the finest raw ingredients in the industry.

Rice – Most of our rice is medium grain and harvested fresh from California.

Sesame Seeds – Another primary ingredient for TH Foods; we strive to source 100% U.S. grown seed.

Nuts & Fruits – We partner with high quality, reputable growers around the world.

Packaging

TH Foods offers a wide variety of packaging options to meet your needs.

- Pillow bags
- Bag in box
- 4-cell plastic trays with poly or foil overwrap
- Single serve
- Stand-up resealable pouches
- Club size packaging
- Bulk packaging for food service and industrial uses
